Lawton,
Oklahoma

Population: 87,450 • Service Area: 258,062

LOCAL POINTS OF INTEREST

- Mount Scott – which rises 2,500 feet above the plains, offers breathtaking scenery and a chance to view free-roaming bison, longhorn cattle, deer and elk.
- Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge – is home to American Bison, Rocky Mountain elk, white-tail deer, and Texas Longhorn cattle on its 59,020 acres.
- Holy City of the Wichitas – is a replica of the city of Jerusalem, featuring 22 buildings made of native granite stone.

Serving as the cultural and commercial center of southwest Oklahoma, the city of Lawton lies at the heart of the Great Plains Country, an area of plains, prairies, mountain peaks and scenic parks.

Fort Sill, located just north of the city, is home of the United States Army Field Artillery.

Visitors to the Lawton/Fort Sill Historic Landmark and Museum, visitors can see a large collection of 20th century artillery known as the Cannon Walk, view historic buildings originally constructed by Buffalo Soldiers and visit the famous Native American burial sites of Geronimo and Quanah Parker. The Mattie Beal Home, a 14-room Italian and Greek Revival-style mansion constructed in 1909, sits on a portion of the 160 acres selected by Mattie Beal when her name was drawn in the 1901 Oklahoma Territory Land Lottery. The home has been completely restored and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Holy City of the Wichitas is a replica of the city of Jerusalem with 22 buildings made of native granite stone. The nation's longest-running Easter passion play, The Prince of Peace, is held here each year in a natural amphitheatre.

THE HOSPITAL and Women's Health programs.

Providing state-of-the-art medical care has been a long tradition at Southwestern Medical Center. For example, the hospital's Southwestern Regional Cancer Center was not only the first cancer program in southwest Oklahoma, but also the first to be accredited by the Commission on Cancer and the first in southwest Oklahoma to offer Intensity Modulated Radiation Therapy (IMRT). The Southwestern Neurosciences Unit offers advanced treatment for a variety of neurological diseases and conditions, including brain tumors, aneurysms, stroke, disease of the spine, Alzheimer's, seizures, and Parkinson's Disease. Other advanced medical technologies include a Cardiac Catheterization Lab, Non-Invasive Cardiovascular Studies, Radiation Oncology, Sleep Diagnostic Systems, Geriatric, Child and Adolescent Behavior Health Services and Wound Healing Center.

THE COMMUNITY

Located just 90 easy miles southwest of Oklahoma City on Interstate 44, Lawton is the third largest city in Oklahoma.
